

SOCIETY

SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
Schofield Barracks, Oct. 7.—Haleiwa has become a veritable country club for Schofield Barracks. A number of people motor down every day for swimming, golf, or a cup of delicious tea on the attractive lanai of the hotel. On Sunday the whole post seems to go down for the day, or for the afternoon. It is very pleasant to see so many friends and acquaintances there and to enjoy a cup of tea and exchange greetings.

Norris and Robert Harbold, Robert Janda, James Dell, William and Robert Frowning are home from the Honolulu Military Academy for the week. Alice Palmer, Katherine Lacey and Victoria Pick are home from Punahou for the week-end.

Col. and Mrs. Guy Carlton and Miss Nellie Carlton are passengers on the Thomas en route to the Philippines and will be the guests of Maj. and Mrs. Henry E. Eames while the transport is in port.

Mrs. Thomas F. Schley entertained most delightfully at bridge on Tuesday for Mrs. Frederick S. Strong, Mrs. Benjamin W. Atkinson, Mrs. Randolph, Mrs. George G. Bailey, Mrs. Clarence F. Day, Mrs. Allen Smith, Mrs. John Boniface, Mrs. G. Barrett Glover, Mrs. James E. Bell, Mrs. Frederick F. Black, Mrs. Oliver A. Dickinson, Mrs. Thomas H. Lowe, Mrs. Livingston Watrous, Mrs. Richard T. Taylor, Mrs. Clarence L. Tinker and Miss Campbell. An attractive box of correspondence cards was given each lady holding high scores at her table, the fortunate ones were Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Glover and Mrs. Watrous. Mrs. Eugene R. Householder went in for tea.

Mrs. Jordan, mother of Mrs. Charles D. Daly, arrived from the mainland this week after a visit of several weeks with relatives.

Tenants, Lieut. and Mrs. G. Barrett Glover are giving a dinner at Haleiwa before the moonlight hop. Their guests are to be Col. and Mrs. Benjamin W. Atkinson, Col. and Mrs. William E. Bannister, Maj. and Mrs. Thomas F. Schley, Lieut. and Mrs. Oliver A. Dickinson, Capt. and Mrs. Walter S. Pridgen, Lieut. and Mrs. Clarence L. Tinker, Miss Lila Wilson and Capt. Donald D. Hay.

Mrs. Adele Mason, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. John R. Baxter, sailed on the Wilhelmina for the mainland.

After the "movies" on Wednesday night Capt. and Mrs. Robert P. Harbold had an informal rarebit party for Lieut. and Mrs. Eugene R. Householder, Capt. and Mrs. James A. Higgins, Lieut. and Mrs. Carl Ballinger, Capt. William G. Doane and Capt. James M. Loud.

Friday night when Capt. and Mrs. Walter S. Pridgen entertained at a hop supper, the guests were seated at small tables lighted with pink shaded candles. Enjoying the Pridgens' hospitality were Maj. and Mrs. George Bailey, Miss Stella Mayer, Maj. and Mrs. Samuel P. Lyon, Capt. and Mrs. Brady G. Rutenegger, Capt. and Mrs. Fred W. Pitts, Capt. and Mrs. Thomas H. Lowe, Capt. and Mrs. LaVerne L. Gregg, Capt. and Mrs. John B. Richardson, Capt. and Mrs. Paul R. Manchester, Capt. and Mrs. Clyde R. Abraham, Capt. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Fredendall, Lieut. and Mrs. Hugh B. Keene, Lieut. and Mrs. John R. Baxter, Lieut. and Mrs. Douglas T. Greene, Lieut. and Mrs. Robert G. Calder, Lieut. and Mrs. G. Barrett Glover, Lieut. and Mrs. Woodfin G. Jones, Lieut. and Mrs. Elmer F. Rice, Miss Catherine Caraban, Miss Evelyn Hodges, Capt. James A. Uilo, Capt. Charles C. Rankhead, Capt. George C. Keleher, Lieut. William A. McCulloch and Lieut. Alfred E. Sawkins.

Mrs. Frank Keeler of Honolulu is the week-end guest of Capt. and Mrs. John D. Burnett.

Lieut. and Mrs. William E. Sheed were hosts at a pretty dinner on Wednesday night. The guests were seated at two tables on which were bowls of pink sweet peas and crystal candle holders with pink shades. The party consisted of Lieut. and Mrs. Elmer F. Rice, Lieut. and Mrs. Jacob L. Devers, Lieut. and Mrs. Livingston Watrous, Lieut. and Mrs. Oliver A. Dickinson, Miss Lila Wilson and Lieut. Wallace C. Philson.

Arriving on the Matsonia on Tuesday are Miss Martha Neide, Miss Blanche Neide, aunt and cousin of Mrs. Walter Pridgen, and Miss Emma Blaine, who will make Mrs. Pridgen a visit of a few weeks. Miss Blanche Neide is the daughter of the late Maj. Horace Neide.

Lieut. and Mrs. Hugh B. Keene gave a supper on Sunday night for Capt. and Mrs. Joseph F. Janda, Lieut. and Mrs. Charles H. Rice, Lieut. and Mrs. John R. Baxter, Miss Adele Mason, Miss Evelyn Hodges, Lieut. Ora M. Baldinger and Lieut. Frank V. Schneider.

Dr. and Mrs. Wilfred Stokes are entertaining a number of friends at dinner tonight at the Haleiwa hotel. At a long table, with a bank of red hibiscus through the center, will be seated the guests—Col. and Mrs. William J. Snow, Mr. and Mrs. Carson Thote of Wahiawa, Capt. and Mrs. John B. W. Corey, Capt. and Mrs. Augustine McIntyre, Lieut. and Mrs. John N. Hauser, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold C. Vanderveer, Lieut. and Mrs. Herman Erlenkotter, Mr. Ware of Honolulu, Miss Hazel Haynes, Dr. Haynes, Dr. and Mrs. Jewell, Lieut. and Mrs. Percy DeShon and Capt. and Mrs. Raymond S. Pratt.

Capt. and Mrs. Harry E. Knight have taken a cottage at Haleiwa for a week.

Cards have been received to the wedding reception of Miss Margaret Rustin and Mr. Arthur Brandon Howell on October 5. Miss Rustin is the daughter of Capt. and Mrs. William G. Doane. The young people will make their home in Omaha, Neb.

One of the largest affairs of the week was the bridge given by Mrs. James P. Barney in honor of Mrs. William J. Snow and Mrs. Locke. Playing bridge were Mrs. Clarence F. Day, Mrs. John J. Boniface, Mrs. John B. W. Corey, Mrs. Robert Cheney, Mrs. Raymond S. Pratt, Mrs. Charles D. Daly, Mrs. Harrison Richards, Mrs. Frederick F. Black, Mrs. Pick, Mrs. Seth Scottfield, Mrs. Percy DeShon, Mrs. William Nalle, Mrs. George G. Bailey, Mrs. William S. Martin, Mrs. William J. Snow, Mrs. Locke, Mrs. Charles A. Hedekin, Mrs. Thomas C. Schley, Mrs. William E. Bannister, Miss Campbell, Mrs. Frank Halstead, Mrs. Frederick F. Strong, Mrs. Horace D. Bloomer, and Mrs. William McCleave. Flower baskets in porcelain, covered with wicker, were given Mrs. Bloomer, Mrs. Bannister, Mrs. Nalle, Mrs. Day, Mrs. Pratt and Mrs. McCleave. At the tea table on which was a profusion of cosmos Mrs. Hugh D. Wise served coffee, Mrs. Snow served salad and Mrs. Charles R. Lloyd served punch. The ladies coming in to tea were Mrs. Allen Smith, Mrs. Kerr Riggs, Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. John K. Herr, Mrs. Conrad S. Babcock, Mrs. John N. Hauser, Mrs. Jacob L. Devers, Mrs. Harold C. Vanderveer, Mrs. Wilber Rodgers, Miss Caroline and Esther McMahon, Mrs. Eugene R. Householder, Mrs. Richard C. Croxton, Mrs. Josephus S. Cecil, Mrs. Robert R. Love, Mrs. Lawrence and Mrs. Paul H. McCook.

Capt. and Mrs. William S. Brownings table was most attractive with shaded Transvaal daisies when they entertained at dinner on Wednesday night for Gen. and Mrs. Frederick F. Strong, Col. and Mrs. William E. Bannister, Lieut. and Mrs. Louis A. Beard, Capt. and Mrs. Charles H. Lloyd, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold C. Vanderveer, Lieut. and Mrs. John N. Hauser, Lieut. Ballard Lyerly, Capt.

James A. Uilo, Lieut. Cliff Andrus and Lieut. Charles M. Haverkamp. The party joined the dancers at the Mounted Service Club later in the evening.

Saturday night Lieut. and Mrs. Robert R. Love were hosts at a charming dinner entertaining Maj. and Mrs. Charles A. Hedekin, Capt. and Mrs. John B. Richardson, Mrs. Grady, Mrs. Lawrence and Lieut. Thomas A. Rothwell. The table was most attractive with pink cosmos and candle shades to match.

The Reading Club met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Walter S. Greacen.

Sailing for San Francisco on the Logan Thursday were a number of people from Schofield, among whom were Lieut. and Mrs. Williams S. Martin and family, Capt. and Mrs. Gordon Kimball and family, Col. Samuel Faison, Col. Carl Reichmann, Capt. James M. Loud, Lieut. Robert T. Snow, Mrs. Randolph and Mr. Byard Randolph, mother and brother of Mrs. Benjamin W. Atkinson.

Lieut. Edward C. Rose had as supper guests on Sunday night at the 1st Infantry mess, Capt. and Mrs. Brady G. Rutenegger, Miss Margaret McKinley, Miss Margaret Merrill and Lieut. Robert T. Snow.

Saturday night Capt. and Mrs. Joseph F. Janda gave a supper in honor of their house-guests, Miss Margaret Merrill and Miss Margaret McKinley. The other guests were Capt. and Mrs. Charles H. Rice, Lieut. Robert T. Snow and Lieut. Edward C. Rose. The party later went to see Marquerite Clark in "Molly Make Believe."

Mrs. Richard C. Croxton's daughter, Miss Lucile Kipson, is en route to Honolulu for a visit.

A number of bridge parties have been planned for next week. Mrs. Seth Scottfield has issued cards for the 11th, Mrs. John B. Richardson for the 13th and Mrs. Fred W. Pitts for the 15th.

Miss Magruder of Honolulu, Miss Caroline and Miss Esther McMahon, Col. and Mrs. John E. McMahon and Maj. Herbert O. Williams of Honolulu were the dinner guests of Col. and Mrs. Richard C. Croxton on Friday night before the 1st Infantry hop.

Capt. and Mrs. John D. Burnett entertained for Miss Adele Mason and Lieut. Robert T. Snow, who sailed this week for the mainland, at the University Club with a most delightful dinner. Red carnations graced the table, around which were seated Miss Mason, Miss Margaret McKinley, Capt. and Mrs. Charles H. Rice, Lieut. Snow, Virgil V. Enyart, Lieut. Frank V. Schneider and Mr. George Ahlborn.

(Continued on Page 13.)

For Autumn Weddings

Those interested in sterling gifts for Autumn brides will be much pleased with the new

Stuyvesant patterns in hammered
Silver

A dignified and substantial model full of the sturdy, enduring character that was abroad in the early Colonial days of New York.

H. F. Wichman & Co.
Platinumsmiths and Jewelers

Look to Your Ribbons

It's a pretty good time right now to see just how you stand with regard to the ribbons that you will need for your Holiday fancy work, gifts, as well as for the every week purposes. Find out the condition of your daughter's hair ribbons, too, for we have a plentiful stock right now.

Plaid and Striped Hair Ribbon, at 35c the yard.

Beautiful Dresden Ribbons for fancy work, 3 to 9 inches wide. Prices up to 90c yard.

Picot Edge Ribbons, in plain colors and fancy checks. Widths of 1-2 to 1-1-2 inches.

Metal effects in Ribbons for trimming. Brocaded patterns done in metal, "gold or silver" threads. 12 inches wide. $5.50 the yard.

SACHS'

Hotel near Fort, Honolulu

Every Yard
of the Ribbons which we stock is of absolutely pure dye silk, guaranteed not to crack or tear under the ordinary conditions of use.

Send for Samples
if you live out of Honolulu. State your preferences as to color, width, kind, etc., and we will gladly mail them to you by return post.

It costs 1c per hour to Iron with GAS

Having a gas iron right in your home will soon prove to you that it will pay you to do yourself things with which you want particular care taken. Or if you have been used to doing all the ironing yourself, the quickness, coolness and cleanliness of the gas iron, to say nothing of the convenience of its instantaneous heat and economy of operation, will recommend it to you.

We are offering a Rose Gas Iron for FREE one month's trial in your own home

This includes a free connection to your gas range. If at the end of the month you are convinced that you can get along without it, we will remove the iron and not charge you a cent for the installation or the month's use.

Otherwise, if you desire to keep the Gas Iron, it will cost you but $2.70 if you pay cash before the 20th of the month, or $3.00 in monthly instalments of $1.00 each.

Phone 3424

Phone this office if you wish to take advantage of this offer. We will have a representative call upon you immediately. Or use the slip in the lower corner of this adv.

Use the Slip

Honolulu Gas Co., Ltd.

Beretania and Alakea Streets

Tear off and leave or send to this office.

COUPON.

I wish to have a Rose Gas Iron installed for 1 month free trial.

Name

Address